

Dear Prospective Godparent or Confirmation Sponsor,

Congratulations! You may – and should – feel honored to be asked to be a sponsor. I trust it is your witness to the Catholic Faith that was the major reason you have been selected for this role. Before accepting, however, you should prayerfully and carefully consider the responsibilities and ramifications.

The role of godparent or sponsor does not demand that one be a canonized saint but if a sincere commitment and genuine effort to live the Catholic Faith are lacking, one does a serious disservice by publicly accepting a role model's position as a god parent or sponsor. We may ask ourselves.

“Will my own integrity allow me to stand at the Altar and make a public profession that the faith expressed in words is also a faith in practice in my daily life?”

We know that family members or friends who have stopped attending Mass or who rarely receive the sacraments or are married outside the church or are living with partners out of wedlock are often asked to serve as a godparent or sponsor. Should you be in such a position, we invite you to grasp this moment as a real opportunity for growth in the spirit and in your faith, if you choose to sign the form on the reverse side of this letter, you have the unique opportunity to make this a time of change, a moment of recommitment. You might resolve to sit down with a priest or with a family member or a friend who is a practicing Catholic and chart a new path in your life of faith.

Perhaps, for whatever reason, you are not ready for this. If you are not committed to the full, renewed practice of your faith, then by all means—and in all honesty—simply ask the relative or friend who has asked you to be godparent or sponsor to hold you excused. Whatever you discern, do so by the grace of God.

If I can be of any assistance in your discernment or in nurturing the grace that this occasion provides for you, please call upon me. It would be a joy and privilege to walk with you at this time. Thank you for your consideration and prayers in responding to this request with sincerity and integrity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Walter T. Schaeffer –Pastor
