

Rosemarie Reimert's witness:

I love faith sharing for many reasons. It enriches my life. How, you say, well first of all the facilitator begins with a meditation and spiritual music which prepares me for faith sharing. This helps me to gather my thoughts and share them. This also prepares me to listen. Listening to the other people in my group gives me new ideas that I would not have thought of on my own. I feel closer to the people in my group and they have become very special to me. Last but not least, I feel closer to God. I love my faith sharing group!
