

Sylvia Wolff's witness

Share with us, bond with us, pray with us, belong with us. Join us on the journey, this “blessed opportunity” to know, to love and to understand what God wants for us and of us. Tell your story and help us for “incredible spiritual reasons”. We need to hear your story and perhaps you need to hear ours. We need you to share your faith with us. We need you to share Jesus. We need you to share your relationship. Our community of faith is blessed with many gifts. We are some of those gifts. Let us share those gifts. Please participate with us and join a small faith sharing group.
