MARY'S CAFÉ-MORNING EDITION: 10a, Oct. 27 in the Rel. Ed Ctr, join Father John for "PRAYER: SPENDING TIME WITH GOD" an encore of Sept. 28 talk.

Prayer is essential to a loving relationship with God. And yet, prayer is challenging, especially with the distractions we face. Hear about the basics of prayer, different types of prayer and praying with Scripture. It is challenging but it is the doorway to the peace this world cannot give. Enjoy fellowship and grow in your faith. QA session and light refreshments included.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

"Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." What does this mean? We might begin by making clear what it does not mean.

There are many who try to make this out to be yet another statement of human politics – as though Jesus is somehow advocating separation of faith and politics. This is an erroneous interpretation that would be contrary to everything else Jesus said and did.

Jesus was not arguing for separating the political and religious, rather, He was showing which is the priority.

He used the coin to illustrate His point. It bore the image of Caesar and could be used to pay taxes back to him. In our day, we owe our government leaders our prayers, participation, concern for the common good, and adherence to laws – laws that are just.

But unlike the coin, we bear a different image. We were created in the image and likeness of God. We owe God everything – our very lives, and all the blessings we enjoy. For our part, it should be clear that Jesus was teaching the people of that time, and teaching us, that the Lord alone is our king. We bear His image.

We are given one life to strive to conform our likeness to His, to form our conscience according to His teaching, and to conform our lives to His.

When we stand before Him at our judgment, whom will we most resemble? The political leaders of our day that come and go with the wind? Or Jesus Christ, the Lord of all Eternity?

Word of Life: "I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation." ~Pope Saint John Paul

October is Respect Life Month

At every age & stage life matters and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. See the bulletin for info.

Every October, we celebrate Respect Life Month. We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson
Whenever we learn how a great person handled a serious problem with a wise solution, we pay attention. For example, the situation of giving a dedication speech at Gettysburg cemetery that faced Abraham Lincoln. He had to be thinking "As president of a war-torn country, and commander-in-chief, what do I say at the dedication of a cemetery filled with the dead of both armies? How do I underscore the inherent nobility of dying for one's country? Also, how do I say it with the minimum of words and the maximum belief in the cause for which these soldiers died?" We know that in his Gettysburg Address Mr. Lincoln did all of that succinctly and memorably well.

Today we hear about a challenge hurled at Jesus Our Lord by some of his sworn enemies. They were only interested in how He would answer their deceitful question. Jesus knew these hypocritical Herodians (followers of King Herod) were only set on entrapment. Of course, the deceivers had no idea that they were confronting God Himself in a human nature, the "true God of whom there is no other" as declared by Isaiah in today's First Reading.

So, after a bit of flattery they asked Him, "Should we pay taxes to Caesar or not?" We know Our Lord's famous answer by heart. Yet, upon reflection, I would up ask myself: "What do I have that I mistakenly claim is mine that rightly belongs to God? My answer: "Everything!" From the right to life to the right to heavenly life and everything in between."

After all, it enabled me to answer my alarm this morning. More than that, His promise to walk beside me during this new day and every other remaining day of my life is such a gift. This is especially comforting when life suddenly "throws me an unexpected curve ball." His answer to that motley crew on that long ago day about who gets taxes is the only Christian way to live. I take courage from Our Lord's way of handling challenges. Here follows the way someone else did:

When he was a young boy, the great painter Benjamin West decided to paint a picture of his sister while his mother was not at home. He got out the bottles of ink and started, but soon had an awful mess. His mother eventually returned and of course saw the mess. Instead of scolding him, she picked up the portrait and declared, "What a beautiful picture of your sister! Then she kissed him. Later in life he said, "With that kiss I became a painter."

God love you and give you, His encouragement

We are a welcoming community called to deepen and share our faith
