SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FATHER JOHN MARIA

Today the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday. This feast was established in the year 2000 by Saint John Paul II, and was inspired by the amazing private revelation given by Jesus to the humble Sister (now Saint) Faustina Kowalska, in Poland during the 1930s. In between two World Wars, and in the midst of the bloodiest of centuries, Jesus came to call souls to His seek His mercy. On the now famous painting of Jesus as He appeared to Saint Faustina, He told her to write: "Jesus, I trust in you."

For this incredible feast, the Gospel from John 20:19-31 relates the appearance of the Risen Christ to His apostles – still bearing the marks of His mercy on His hands and side. Remarkably, He gives to them the mission that was given His by the Father – the forgiveness of sins. As He breathed the Holy Spirit upon them, the apostles – the first priests of the Church – were given the power to forgive sins.

In these events, we see the roots of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The soul that humbly confesses their sin aloud has the great blessing of hearing His forgiveness, and is set free from the burden of guilt. Our Lord desires to shower His mercy upon us, and give us His peace! Take advantage of this great gift!

HAPPY EASTER! As our CRS Rice Bowl journey comes to an end, may the Eucharist continue to transform our lives and help us to respond to God's call to serve our global family. Let us commit to sharing the joy of the Resurrection with people in our local community and around the world. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl in the Gathering Area or donate online: crsricebowl.org/donate

Daily Marriage Tip

It’s important to remember your priorities in your marriage. Never sweat the small things that may get on your nerves about your spouse.

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

It starts in the childhood playground and often lingers through adolescence and even to adulthood. I refer to nicknames. Red-headed Renee or Ricky become known as “Reds.” Other such labels derive from a person’s usual behavior or some event in the classroom or the ballfield, or whatever event that everybody else remembers.

Case in point: the naming of St. Thomas as “The Doubter.” In retrospect, it’s an unfair nickname given to this Apostle who makes a beautiful act of faith to the risen Jesus. (Imagine him doing so on his knees.) Ever since then, Thomas’ statement “My Lord and my God” makes a perfect prayer to say as the priest elevates the sacred Host right after its consecration as the Body of Christ at every Mass.

At any rate, this incident surely makes St. Thomas the patron saint of those who have doubts, especially about our holy Faith. I presume that includes a lot of us from time to time. Let’s start with doubt about the Eucharist truly being the Body and Blood of Christ. Sadly, that embraces a lot of surveyed Catholics these days. Then there are those who doubt our Church’s teachings, sometimes only because they don’t like them.

Moving on from there, we have people who doubt the goodness of life here “below heaven.” Doubt their own goodness as God’s creatures. That means they doubt the person in their mirror as having value.

We must always remember that doubt itself is morally neutral. It spurs on a healthy “probing” into what our Church teaches. That, in turn, can lead to a renewed faith. Open-minded research into this or that teaching provides previously untapped evidence. Of course, some teachings, like the Holy Eucharist, ultimately depend on faith, nurtured by prayer. We can be sure St. Thomas prayed.

Today is the Octave, or the eighth day of Easter. Pope St. John Paul II designated it as “Divine Mercy Sunday.” This is a beautiful devotion based on the visions of a holy Polish nun named Sr. Faustina, wherein Our Lord Himself bids us to trust in Him. That’s what St. Thomas did with renewed vigor in that Upper Room. We can do the same. As an anonymous writer put it: “Doubt makes the mountain which faith can move.”

God love you and give you his Easter peace.
