SOUP KITCHEN REPORT: Apr 13/14 we served 230 meals of hot food: chili, rice and green beans with fruit cup, PB&J, and beverage (coffee, hot chocolate, water, milk). The patrons were very grateful for our service and the gift of food. We had great workers and plenty of food. Many thanks for all donations of food and money; to those who prepared and transported the food and supplies; to those serving meals and washing pots and trays; and those who supervised. All leftover food and supplies were given to Kennedy House. Next Soup Kitchen dates: Dec. 21/22.

MARY'S CAFÉ: God is Calling! On Friday, April 26 at 7pm, all are invited to join Father John at Mary's Cafe. The topic will be "God is Calling!" All too often, we think only a few special people have a calling from God, and the rest of us just wander around on our own. Not so!

God IS calling, but can we hear Him? Are we willing to take His call? The evening will mention the particular vocations to marriage, religious life and the priesthood, but will focus upon the UNIVERSAL call to holiness for all of us – at every stage of life! From there, we can discern our particular call from God, and encourage others to do the same.

Join us for this informal & informative talk, Q&A and fellowship with your family at St. Mary's. Hope to see you Friday, April 26 at 7pm in the Religious Ed Center! (The morning edition of this talk will be Friday, May 3 at 10am.)

ADULT CONFIRMATION AT CATHEDRAL: 11:30a, May 19 Bishop Schlert will celebrate Mass wherein he will confirm adults of our Diocese. Those to be confirmed are those adults who were baptized in the Roman Catholic Church, received their First Holy Communion, are catechized, but never confirmed. Please contact Fr. John Maria to discuss necessary instruction, and registration with the Bishop!

YOU MAY HAVE NOTICED... The Bishop announced in February: effective June 18, Fr. John Maria will also add the role of Director of Vocations, Diocese of Allentown. Please note he is not leaving St Mary's! In this new responsibility, he'll oversee assisting formation of current seminarians as they discern the call to the priesthood and promote vocations throughout the diocese. Please pray for Fr. John, and above all, pray for vocations to the priesthood!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FATHER JOHN MARIA

Our readings for this 4th Sunday of Easter illustrate the power of the Risen Christ, proclaimed by His Church in every generation.

In the Gospel, Jesus says that He is the Good Shepherd, who came to lay down His life for His flock. He knows His sheep, and they know the voice of their shepherd, because they are trained to follow and trust. We hear the desire of Christ that there be but one flock, and one shepherd.

In our reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we hear the proclamation of another shepherd, Peter, whom Christ called and empowered to continue His saving mission, in gathering the nations. Saint Peter boldly calls souls to Christ, while proclaiming "There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved." This was true then, and it remains true today.

The Lord is still calling souls to follow Him, who is the way, the truth, and the life.

In our noisy culture, we can let the voice of the Good Shepherd be drowned out. As a result, His call to holiness for every one of us becomes indistinct. And His particular call to men to serve as priests and shepherds can go unheard.

Please pray for an increase in young men willing to listen and follow the call of the Good Shepherd! He desires to provide and feed us with the Bread of Life -- the Holy Eucharist, food for the journey home!

DEACON BRELINSKY TO BE ORDAINED JUNE 01: Deacon N. Romero Brelinsky has been a great blessing to our parish since his diaconate assignment began in June 2023. His formal assignment with us has come to an end as he finishes his last semester at seminary and prepares to be ordained a priest on June 1. The Bishop will inform him that day of the new parish he will be assigned to serve.

Dcn. Brelinsky be with us the weekend of April 27 & 28, and there will be a Farewell Gathering at "coffee & donuts" in rm. 117/122 after 8:30am Mass. There will also be a reception on Saturday June 1 at 2pm in the social hall, where Father Brelinsky will greet people and give "first blessings" - a beautiful and powerful blessing from newly-ordained priests. More details will follow as that time nears.

Please keep Deacon Romero in your prayers as he approaches his special day!

MASSES FOR THE "PEOPLE OF THE PARISH": You may have noticed that frequently the Mass intention is offered for the "People of the Parish". Some might speculate that this is used for an otherwise "unfilled slot", but that is not the case! By canon law, a pastor is obliged to apply a Mass for the people entrusted to him on each Sunday and holy day of obligation. There are some alternative options, but the norm is to have one weekend Mass reserved for this purpose.

It is also interesting that this applies to registered parishioners, and ALL those within territorial boundaries, whether Catholic or not. This is because a pastor has a certain spiritual responsibility for all souls within the parish territory. (No wonder he looks tired!)

Offering Mass "Pro Populo" ("for the people") is one of the ways a priest prays for all the intentions people have - a sick mother, a grieving widow, a wayward son, an unemployed husband, etc. Even if you have not asked, rest assured that your needs are being prayed for at Mass.

MASS INTENTIONS: As Catholics we believe souls united in Christ remain connected-even after death, seek the prayers of the saints, and pray for the souls of loved ones who have died in Christ. It's a most powerful prayer and act of love to request Mass be offered for the souls of loved ones.

The Mass book is open for Saturday/Sunday and weekday Mass requests. Contact the parish office to schedule a Mass intention. Because of the increased demand for scheduled Masses:

- † The book is open for the whole year until dates are full.
- † Please request no more than 1 weekend Mass per month.
- † There are no limitations on daily Masses.
- † Personal Mass intentions not available for: Holy Thursday, Easter, Christmas, Mothers' nor Father's Day

DAILY MASSES WITH BISHOP SCHLERT, BECAUSE WE ARE CATHOLIC: All are invited to celebrate with the Bishop:
April 25, 8:30a - Sacred Heart, Palmerton
May 22, 8:30a - St. Joseph the Worker, Orefield
Sept. 9, 8:00a - Our Lady of Mercy, Easton
Sept. 12, 8:00a - Holy Guardian Angels, Reading

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!! St Mary's will have a Parish Mission on May 19, 20 & 21! Each evening - Sunday, Monday & Tuesday- at 7pm, we will gather for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Evening Prayer, song and a talk by some of the finest priests in the diocese, including Fr Mark Searles, Fr. Richard James and Fr. Matthew Kuna.

There will be special periods of Eucharistic Adoration each day, as we honor our Lord Jesus Christ, and seek the intercession of His Mother. Watch future bulletins for more details in committing to a time of adoration!

"For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day." - John 6:40

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Each of us has that certain friend, relative or neighbor who is good at something that we're not. That ability could be about almost anything you can name. Baking a cake; building a deck; telling a story; driving an RV or flying a plane. It is these talents and abilities of others that make life better for us, even if we must fight off a little jealousy. But, when you add in your specialty, we have an expanded basis for gratitude, well past the fourth Thursday in November.

There is one Person who once came to live with us from a faraway place called heaven who had every possible talent and ability there could be: Our Lord Jesus. Even so, He put limits on Himself. Yes, He performed miracles. Yes, He rose from the dead. But in His teaching, He only told us what we needed to know; never to limit ourselves in becoming better; told us how to be better; and then invited us to live in His kingdom.

In today's Gospel Reading, Jesus made bold to call Himself "The Good Shepherd." That title meant more to His contemporaries than it does to us, at least at first glance. Most of us know nothing about this humble and difficult way of life called shepherding. We have to "Google" it. We do know that shepherds raise and tend to sheep.

When Jesus called Himself the "Good" Shepherd that word in John's gospel meant more than "good at" some task or other. It meant "noble" or "ideal" shepherd. That declared that Jesus was not like the bad shepherds who neglected their flocks and let them become victims of wolves. In fact, Jesus gave His life for His sheep, who, in this context are namely you and me.

The good news is that we are always part of His flock if we want to be. We will receive His attention, His care, His love. Of course, that word "if" makes all the difference. We can reject Him. Write Him off our list of priorities if you will. This happens to otherwise faithful sheep, particularly when inclusion in His flock, or loyalty to Him involves pain and difficulty.

In our society, with its upside-down value system, that pain may be no more than embarrassment at being known as His follower. Yet every crucifix, large or small, is a vivid reminder of how much He loves us and will not hold back His love if we repent. Like a good shepherd, He feeds His flock with the finest of foods, namely the Holy Eucharist. Boy is our Shepherd good at loving us, is He not? How are we at loving Him back?

Even a four-year-old little girl knows the coldness implied when we make no return to God. Her mother watched her one day hugging a doll in each of her pudgy little arms. After a few minutes, she wistfully looked up at her mother and said, "Mama, I love them and love them and love them, but they never love me back."

Well...God love you and may you always love Him back.
