St Mary's Parish Mission May 19, 20 & 21!

Mark your calendar! Our St. Mary's Parish Mission will be our special time for us to gather as a family, to adore the Lord in His True Presence and call upon the Holy Spirit. Each May, the Church honors mothers and our patroness the Blessed Virgin in a special way. Beginning Pentecost Sunday, we will keep her company in prayer before Her Divine Son, calling upon the Holy Spirit.

Each evening at 7pm, gather for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Evening Prayer, song and reflection. The Holy Hour will close with Benediction at 8pm. Guest speakers - Fr Mark Searles, Fr. Richard James and Fr. Matthew Kuna - will share their own reflections upon the Holy Spirit, the Blessed Sacrament and Mary, Mother of the Church.

Each day, there will be periods of Eucharistic Adoration until 7pm. This is a powerful time of private prayer in the Presence of Jesus! We need ALL slots to be filled by at least one (and preferably more) person. We cannot leave Him alone! Will you make a commitment to adore our Lord Jesus Christ and seek the intercession of His Mother for your most heartfelt intentions?

Please sign up! Find Sign-up sheets on the Gathering Area tables, as well as on the front page of the website.

Will you keep watch with Him?

“Take pleasure in remaining in His company: do not lose this most precious time, for this hour is of the utmost value to the soul, and the Good Jesus desires you to spend it with him.” St. Teresa of Avila

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FATHER JOHN MARIA

On this 7th Sunday of Easter, as we celebrate Mother's Day, it's fitting to reflect upon the Church. For many generations, it has been commonplace to refer to Mother Church. Receptive to the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit, nurturing the life of her children, loving them and forming them for loving service in the family of the Father, the Church ought to be loved as our mother.

In our readings, we see the plan of Christ for His Church from the very beginning. It was more than any mere human organization but conceived to last until His return. In our reading from Acts, we find Peter calling for a successor to take the place of Judas. He drew upon God's Word in Scripture, they prayed and then left the final choice in the Lord's hands, by casting lots. This combination of prayer and casting lots had Old Testament precedent – in the selection of priests for Temple service.

The apostles saw themselves as being entrusted with the Mission of God who became man, to redeem mankind – they were charged to teach and sanctify the whole world. It was a priestly mission. Jesus did not leave us orphans. He founded a Church.

In our Gospel, Jesus is praying that those who follow Him would be ONE in His Church.

In other words, Jesus was praying for YOU. Today, as we express love and pray for our mothers in life, be sure to pray for Mother Church as well!

Mother’s Day

On this Mother’s Day we lift up in prayer all mothers. And we pray for mothers who have lost a child, those who’ve lost or are estranged from their own mothers, and those who struggle or are unable to have a child.

Pray they may be filled with the Lord’s peace, comforted by His love on what may be a challenging day.

We celebrate and remember these and all Mothers

Word of Life: "Radical solidarity compels us to come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It requires us to address the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her. We must do all we can to provide mothers, children, and families with the support they need to flourish. This cannot be accomplished by laws or policy alone, but requires the continual transformation of our own hearts, recognizing in every person the face of Christ, and placing their needs before our own." ~ USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Radical Solidarity"

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Sweet sonnets and lovely songs have been written in which one partner tells his/her beloved other that "you're always on my mind." That's how love affects thought patterns, no matter one's age. It is a fit subject for wonder and praise. An intimate thing. A beautiful human thing.

Today we are allowed to "overhear" Our Lord, through the medium of John's gospel, express in prayer not only His love for His Father, but also even for Judas. That troubled man had just left the Upper Room to begin his ultimate act of betrayal. Our Lord's prayer is especially remarkable, because in only a matter of hours, His captors would arrive to nab Him to lead Him away. They would rewrite the story of love at its best. But it would be told via terrible torture and a despicable death. What strength of mind and heart our Savior had to pray like He did. Even then He was always concerned for "the other."

That "other" in this context even included Judas. What a sad and confused man, this one of the chosen Twelve turned out to be. Forever after this night, his name would become synonymous with all kinds of treachery. To accuse another of being a Judas is the final blow in a slow or sudden breakdown of trust.

While we have no inherent right to play God by placing Judas in hell, we dare not. True, his crime was of the devil. The Victim was God in the flesh. But we, in our small and petty ways have done measurably evil with our repeated habits of sin against the same Victim.

We must humbly admit that our sins nailed Jesus to the wood of the cross just as surely as the ignorant soldiers of Rome. He hangs there to make amends for our sins. We know that their weight almost crushed Our Lord. He "became sin" in St. Paul's powerful description.

Yet, by God's grace, we can share in the triumph of the Third Day. In a very real way, we might even claim to be "always on Jesus' mind," The question follows like day follows night: "Is Jesus always on our minds?" Do we take advantage of the big and small ways that life offers to prove it?

During the season of Super Bowl I, the great quarterback Bart Starr had a little incentive scheme going with his oldest son. For every perfect paper Bart Junior brought home from school, Starr gave him ten cents. After a particularly rough game against St. Louis, in which Starr felt he had performed poorly, he returned home weary and battered, late at night after a long plane ride. But he couldn't help feeling better when he reached his bedroom. There attached to his pillow was a note: "Dear Dad, I thought you played a great game. Love, Bart." Taped to the note were two dimes.

God love you and keep Him in mind.
