DAILY MASSES WITH BISHOP SCHLERT, BECAUSE WE ARE CATHOLIC: All are invited to celebrate with the Bishop: Sept. 12, 8:00a - Holy Guardian Angels, Reading

THE NEXT PARISH DIRECTORY: For many years, St. Mary's has published a parish directory every five years or so. This has been a great way for parishioners to stay connected. To keep this tradition alive, we seek a group of people to help create the next directory. Lifetouch went out of business during the pandemic while working on our 2020 directory, but there are other companies now available.

The directory team will work with a photo directory company to organize photo sessions and content. Fr. John will assist the team by suggesting potential companies and giving input on the directory content. We aim to start in early fall with a release hoped for 2025. As always, extra hands make for lighter work! We seek a small team, including a chair or co-chairs. If interested, please email Fr. John: pastor@stmaryskutztown.com and he will gather a team, and plan a meeting.

OCIA BEGINS THIS WEEK! At 7p, Thursday September 12 in the Religious Ed Center, OCIA will formally begin. The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (formerly RCIA) is the process by which people prepare to come to a new commitment to Jesus Christ, and be received into full communion with His Catholic Church.

This is a journey closer to Jesus – a process of prayer and study. We'll begin on Thursday at 7pm. There is no pressure or obligation, as each inquirer seeks to hear the call of Jesus to know His truth, His love and His mercy. This process is also appropriate for others over 14 who have received Baptism in the Catholic Church, but have yet to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Do you have a friend or loved one who is open to hearing this call of Christ, and to being received into the Catholic Church? Might YOU be that someone who's been a friend of St. Mary's parish, but have hesitated to take the step toward becoming Catholic? Jesus is still calling!

We will meet in Room 117/122 in the Rel. Ed. Center. For questions, call Fr. John Maria at 610-683-7443. We'd love for you to join us!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

The Scripture readings for the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time should strengthen our confidence that our God is indeed a Father who keeps His promises.

In the first reading, Isaiah, who lived around the year 700 BC, prophesied of the day that would come when the ears of the deaf will be cleared and streams will burst forth in the desert. In our Gospel, the time of fulfillment of Old Testament promises had come. Forging into Gentile territory of darkness, Jesus opened the ears of a deaf man, using outward signs that communicated His power of healing.

The Lord still employs outward signs to bring His power – through the Sacraments of His Church. Through Reconciliation (Confession) and the Anointing of the Sick, we find healing and strength, uniting us ever closer to Christ.

His still desires to heal those in need of healing, be it body, mind or soul. Go to Him in prayer, and let Him know your deepest needs. Come and be with Him, truly Present in the Blessed Sacrament!

We are a welcoming community called to deepen and share our faith

Word of Life: “We pray to you, O Lord, that we always recognize each member of this human family as being made in your image and beloved by you, with worth and dignity.” ~ USCCB, “Prayer to Heal Racial Division”

The Eucharist is the infinite good. For in that Sacrament is Jesus himself, as much present as he was in his home in Nazareth or in the Upper Room at Jerusalem. Frank Duff

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

“God is in the details.” That’s a thought attributed to the minimalist German architect Miles van der Rohe. He was referring to the attributes of his many creations. While it might at first seem to be too great a stretch to connect architecture with Holy Scripture, there is much about God’s words and actions in the Bible that feature details we should notice. They can be profitable for our prayer and reflection. Heretofore hidden meanings emerge. The divine presence lies just below the surface. Not immediately obvious.

Case in point: this weekend’s beautiful passage about the encounter of Jesus with a deaf mute. Note first how the crowd already knew where to go and whom to see if they wanted a person to be helped. Jesus. His reputation preceded Him. This “herd,” if you will, was attracted to the possibility of a miracle in their midst. On the surface, they seemed not to care much for the sick man’s feelings.

It gives me pause to think that sometimes that we have just wanted to “use” Jesus’ power and might for our own needs to be met. We forget that He is a Person, not a machine. A divine person no less, who took on our human nature to save us from hell. Not a dispenser of wish fulfillment.

We note the detail that Jesus leads the deaf man away from the crowd. Away from the raucous voices with mixed up ideas about God. Or the cheering cries of people that just want to make noise and enjoy mayhem. The Lord wants the man to have some well-deserved privacy. To look the Lord in the face and express with hand gestures his longing to be normal, even if he cannot yet voice it.

In a world filled with what are called “social media,” users are allotted an outlet to express themselves, however crude or misinformed they may be about a given issue. They can do it anonymously with their privacy intact. But they have no qualms invading ours.

Do we ever go so far as to prohibit God from entering our so-called “private space?” That place where we decide what to do no matter what the Commandments and the Beatitudes? That’s a detail in our story.

After touching the man’s ears and tongue, we note that Jesus “looked up to heaven” and “groaned.” In His prayer to the Father, Jesus took on the needy man’s pain and deprivation. Just as He takes on our own troubles every time, we request His help. A major detail in our lives: “We never walk alone.”

Lastly, there’s that detail wherein Jesus tells the crowd to keep quiet about what He did. St. Mark wants his readers to wait until the Passion and Resurrection story to learn Jesus’ full identity. Sometimes we must wait for God to answer our prayers. We must admit that we can either be deaf to His responses or mute in our thanks.

Let me quote the great Christian apologist C.S. Lewis for my closing thought today: “On the whole, God’s love for us is a much safer subject to think about than our love for Him.”

God love you and give you His peace.
