SIGN UP FOR ALTAR SERVER TRAINING. 4th -12th grade

boys and girls may participate in Altar Server ministry, assisting Fr. Maria. Parents, talk with your children about becoming involved. Contact Fr. John Maria with any questions.

THE NEXT PARISH DIRECTORY: For many years, St. Mary's has published a parish directory every five years or so. This has been a great way for parishioners to stay connected. To keep this tradition alive, we seek a group of people to help create the next directory. Lifetouch went out of business during the pandemic while working on our 2020 directory, but there are other companies now available.

The directory team will work with a photo directory company to organize photo sessions and content. Fr. John will assist the team by suggesting potential companies and giving input on the directory content. We aim to start in early fall with a release hoped for 2025. As always, extra hands make for lighter work! We seek a small team, including a chair or co-chairs. If interested, please email Fr. John: pastor@stmaryskutztown.com and he will gather a team, and plan a meeting.

YOUNG ADULT GROUP AT ST. MARY'S! Attention all

young adults! You've heard the names of Perpetua and Felicity during Mass, but who are they? Starting 6p Sunday Oct. 6 in the Parish Center, join with other young adults and find out more about the saints – most especially those young adults who followed Christ! A Word About Church in Latin America Collection...

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. Thank you for your support

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

Have you ever had the experience of working so hard to clearly communicate to someone, only to discover that they completely missed the point? It happens a lot in family, work and everyday life, and it's frustrating.

The Lord has that experience in today's Gospel. But tragically, the message the apostles missed was the most important expression of God's love for them -- His clear message of the suffering and death that He would soon endure. Imagine how painful that must have been for Jesus.

He used that moment to awaken them to the stark difference between the ways of the world, and the Way of Christ. In the world, ambition toward power and desire for comfort are the norms. In Christ, we are called to be servants and protectors of the most vulnerable.

This week, give some time to reflect upon your heart's deepest desire. Is it to receive the accolades of the world, or to receive the embrace of the One who died that you might have eternal life? Ask for the grace to transform your heart's deepest desire to perfectly match HIS desire for you!

Word of Life: “The truth of the Gospel of life is at the foundation of who we are as followers of Christ. In his earthly life, Jesus provided the perfect model for how we are to love our neighbor and live out the Gospel call: “Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me” (Mt. 25:40).” *NABRE © 2010 CCD. REFLECTION by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Let's pretend for a bit and project our times backward to the days of the Apostles before the resurrection where our gospel passage finds us. A young reporter named Rebekah for “Action News Jerusalem” is dispatched to interview ordinary people who have become followers of Jesus. Given a tip by Mordecai, the assignment editor, about a group of 12 who are currently in town, she asks a certain man named Thomas what the group is discussing at their meeting. Thomas shyly replies, “We’re trying to decide which of us is the greatest?”

Rebekah replies, “Our sources tell us that’s the kind of question that your Leader disdains. Isn’t that true?” Just then the Leader Himself comes into camera range. Rebekah notes the man’s good looks and regal bearing despite His drab clothes and asks him straight away “Sir, don’t you dislike talk of privilege and position among your followers?” “Surely”, He replies, in a voice that could enrapture any audience. These men are good people, but they have a lot to learn about My perspective on things.”

He goes further. “Rebekah, may I call you that?” “Certainly,” she says, “our viewers call me that, and we’re anxious for your thoughts.”

Jesus at this point calls a little boy over from a group playing tag. Putting His arms around the boy’s shoulders, He looks into the camera while also addressing His young followers and says, “Look, guys, and those of you watching on TV or online right now, “If you really want to be first, you’ve got to choose the last place. And if you receive a child like this boy here in My Name, respecting His innocence and his not angling for a position, you will be really receiving Me. Or even better, you will be receiving the One, the Person I call “Father” or “Abba” (Daddy) who sent Me. And we will always have your back.”

TV reporter Rebekah, taking back her mike, says into the camera, “Well, there you have it, everybody, an unexpected drop- in conversation with the Man himself, Jesus of Nazareth. Now back to our studio. I’m Rebekkah in Jerusalem for Channel 144, Action News.”

I trust that you here and now can see the major point of the gospel that I tried to dramatize. True greatness comes from acknowledging who we are in God’s eyes, not the eyes of fellow human beings. Setting goals like climbing social or corporate ladders, wishing for fame and fortune, or flaunting our possessions is so much a pursuit of nonsense. As for so many other teachings in Christ’s Church, humility is key. “The person with true humility never has to be shown his place; he is always in it.”

God love you and give you His peace.

A detailed black and white illustration of a submarine sandwich, likely a hero or hoagie, filled with meat, cheese, and vegetables. The sandwich is shown in a side profile, highlighting its long, tapered shape and the variety of fillings. The bread has a textured, slightly bumpy surface. The fillings include slices of meat, melted cheese, and various vegetables like lettuce and tomatoes. The illustration is done in a classic, detailed style with cross-hatching for shading.
