SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

In our Gospel for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus encounters a blind man, begging on the side of the road. Bartimaeus couldn't see, but he perceived something that others missed. When he called out to Jesus as "Son of David," he was identifying Him as the promised Messiah. Imagine: A blind beggar was the first person, outside of the apostles, to recognize Jesus as the Messiah.

People told him to be quiet. But, he persisted, until Jesus called for him. Bartimaeus threw aside his cloak, sprang up and went to Jesus. Saints and early fathers of the Church saw his cloak as symbolic of the past life he was leaving behind.

Jesus asked him plainly: "What do you want me to do for you?" One might think the answer was obvious, but was it really? So often, we carry longings, wounds and frustrations of many kinds, that we could lose sight of what matters most, for ourselves and our loved ones.

This week, spend time with Jesus. He is asking each of us, "What do you want me to do for you?" May we give Him our heart's deepest desire, and like the beggar who once blind, may we rise up and follow the Lord in a new way!

WINDOW TO THE WOMB-During this Respect Life Month, we continue to reflect upon the sanctity and dignity of each human life from the moment of conception. Sadly, so many dismiss such life as an expendable part of his or her mother's body. And yet, we know that each life in the womb is a distinct human person deserving of love and protection.

In Luke 1:39-45, we are given the amazing scene of the unborn prophet John leaping with joy in the Presence of the unborn Lord Jesus Christ! For a beautiful and scientific presentation of life at every stage in the womb, check out "Window to the Womb" at the following website: <https://www.windowtothewomb.app>. It is breathtaking! Praise God for His precious gift of human life!

WORD OF LIFE: "The witness of our Blessed Mother [in the Gospel account of her visit to her pregnant cousin, Elizabeth,] invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities. ...Mary's witness is an invitation to step out in love and compassion. It is a summons to make haste to help vulnerable women who may be isolated and alone." ~ USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities; Respect Life Reflection: Called to Serve Moms in Need; respectlife.org/called-to-serve-reflection

DIOCESAN-WIDE BLOOD DRIVE: Miller-Keystone Blood Center and the Diocese of Allentown are hosting a diocese-wide blood drive in honor of Saint Januarius, the patron saint of blood banks. We are encouraged to donate blood at one of MKBC's donor centers beginning on the Feast Day of Saint Januarius, Sept. 19- Dec. 16, one of the miracle dates of his blood liquification. In addition to saving lives, all donors who provide the parish's Sponsor Code "4547" at the time of their appointment will receive a Saint Januarius medallion, blessed by Bishop Schlert. REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

For a while the watchword was simple: "Don't leave home without your cell phone." But now there is a codicil: "You'll need your GPS." The letters stand for "Global Positioning System" a once military property that tells you not only where you are, but also how to get to somewhere else. It removes the fear of getting lost. I for one am grateful for this technology and the clever people who developed it. I do have to say that some of the technology available now urges believers to put restraint on certain technology that violates Christian moral teachings when it comes to some life issues. I'm glad to have a map and a voice to accompany it, but I and we must push back any technology that favors matters like abortion and euthanasia.

We read in Mark's gospel today about a physically handicapped man living at a time with no technology at hand to bring healing from blindness. But Jesus brought complete healing. So now what should the man do? He decides to follow his healer on the way. "The way" at that time was the name our earliest Christian ancestors described their new religion. So, St. Mark brings a new dimension to the story. It changes from a "healing story" to a "call story." In other words, the man didn't just pick up his former lifestyle, that of an ordinary sighted person. This might have meant pursuing a career in a given field. No, what Bartimaeus decided on was to follow Jesus to wherever that led. Complete trust of the kind we poor sinners can only strive for in hope.

A detail we might miss but caught by certain commentators is the fact that the "garment" or "cloak" Bartimaeus threw away just may have been the cloth he used to spread before him to collect people's offerings as they passed him.

It suggests that Bartimaeus was leaving behind "the old order." That's exactly what we're called to do, for example, after we have made a good confession.

We first face the fact that every sin we commit, small or big, venial or mortal, involves a certain degree of temporary "blindness." We had forgotten to see or chose not to see God's way. "There are none so blind as those who will not see." The wonderful Sacrament of Reconciliation, or Penance, or Confession (the names describe the same sacrament) is the cure. The Holy Spirit provides direction for us in our newly forgiven hearts and souls. Even before receiving the sacramental grace, we know the name of "the way." We just need to recheck those directions we need to get there. I suggest here and now a new meaning for the letters "GPS," namely: "God Provides for Sinners." There's an old hymn about that very truth that Bartimaeus would have liked:

"Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost and now am found,
Was blind but now I see."
