GIVING FROM OUR BOUNTY:

This bountiful project is supported by our HS Youth Group, Nov 10-Dec 08. Cost of living increases have made an especially difficult time for many.

The organizations that support families in need struggle. Choose gift and/or food item tags in the Gathering Area. Gifts will support Lifeline, Friend, Inc., and Willow Brook.

- ☆Lifeline requests mother and baby items
- ☆Friend, Inc. seeks food donations for Christmas and children’s Christmas clothing and toys.
- ☆Willow Brook residents in long-term care can feel isolate. A little cheer goes a long way to boost morale and aid recovery. You may even include a letter or care for a more personal connection.

Please return gift items by Sunday, Dec 08, with tags securely attached, into the Gathering Area large boxes. No tag needed for Food Items. Gifts preferred unwrapped. However, gift bags and wrapping paper donations welcomed.

NEXT BAPTISM WORKSHOP 7p, Dec 03 and 10. Contact Ann Pergosky: 610-683-6454, reled@stmaryskutztown.com

So much love and work goes into this parish event. Thanks to all who worked and supported the bazaar. It was a beautiful day for the parish!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

Our readings for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time inspire us to greater generosity, as we consider our most important priorities in this life. Above all, they inspire us to greater trust in the Lord.

In our busy modern lives, it can be easy to lose focus on what really matters, and all too easy to worry about things beyond our control. We can seek comfort in things that are not of God, and scramble anxiously to trust in ourselves.

In our Gospel (Mark 12:38-44), Jesus observes and marvels about the faith of the poor widow. Her example of generosity is enshrined in Scripture for all eternity! Behind that generosity, we should all reflect upon her absolute trust in the Lord to provide what she needed.

Jesus is the Eternal High Priest, who offered Himself once for all! He is worthy of our trust. May we imitate the example of the poor widows, and echo the famous prayer given by Jesus to Saint Faustina: “Jesus, I trust in You!”

MASS INTENTIONS: As Catholics we believe souls united in Christ remain connected-even after death, seek the prayers of the saints, and pray for the souls of loved ones who have died in Christ. It's a most powerful prayer and act of love to request Mass be offered for the souls of loved ones.

The 2025 Mass book is open for Saturday/Sunday and weekday Mass requests. Contact the parish office to schedule a mass intention. Because of the increased demand for scheduled Masses:

- † The book is open for the whole year until dates are full.
- † Please request no more than 1 weekend Mass per month; 9 weekend Masses per year.
- † There are no limitations on daily Masses.
- † Personal Mass intentions not available for: Holy Thursday, Easter, Christmas, Mothers nor Fathers Day

Veteran's Day Prayer

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

MARY'S CAFÉ: Friday Nov. 22 Rm. 117/122 in the Religious Ed Center, all are invited to join Father John at "Mary's Cafe". The topic will be announced next week in the bulletin. Father is open to suggestion!

"Mary's Café" is a great opportunity to get together with others in the parish, and grow in your faith. The talk is informal and informative, allowing time to ask questions on the topic at hand, and others as well! Light refreshments will be available. Plan to join us, 6:30p, Nov. 22

BECAUSE WE ARE CATHOLIC: Thank you to the 136 parish families who've supported this year's drive. You still have time to make your gift before year's end. THE TRUTH OF SEX & GENDER: 3p, Nov 17, Assumption BVM, Bethlehem. The topic of gender and sexual identity has become increasingly important in our modern times. The Church provides wisdom for those seeking clarity, as well as guidance on how to express truth in the light of charity. Fr. Brelinsky will discuss what the Church affirms about human sexuality as well as how the faithful can confidently speak on this topic. REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

When most of us think of an “observatory” I venture we picture a large domed building erected on a mountain, enclosing a great telescope built to study the stars and planets. Admittedly there are other kinds of observatories used to study terrestrial and marine events. So, we also have them for studying climatology, geophysics, oceanography and volcanology. But outer space probing is likely the most appealing model.

Of course, we need only our human eyes to observe each other. But what if human eyes were to be coupled with the divine? Then we would have the most unique set for observing everyone. Only Jesus had those.

In today’s Gospel passage, St. Mark presents the sharp contrast that Jesus observed watching Temple donors. He noted the hypocritical scribes making a great show. But He was taken by the poor widow making her contribution. With His divine eyes working with the human, He “saw” unbounded generosity in that lady’s donation. He as “Master” then pointed that out to His disciples that day. He still points it out to us today.

No doubt there is wonderful generosity among us today. None of the charitable works of the Church could be accomplished without it. But it is well for us to remember that generosity is not limited to money. There is also a generosity of spirit. Call it a mindset that acknowledges that since everything we have comes from God, why cling to it as if it comes from ourselves? If we don’t think that way we’re headed for trouble. It could even keep heaven closed to us.

Anyone observing the way we live should recognize that we are Christians. Our “Observer in Chief” is Jesus Christ, our loving God. He is not only the One ultimately responsible for it all, but whose grace infuses us with His spirit. Unless we choose to block it.

Once upon a time, a family sat down at the breakfast table following Sunday morning Mass. “The homily was boring today,” said the teenage son. “Yeah, could you believe how Father stumbled over the reading of the Gospel?” his sister chimed in. “I’ve got to admit it was an uninspiring day,” said Mother. “The choir was terrible.” Finally, father, showing his leadership, said, “Hush, you guys. Quit complaining. What do you expect for three dollars?”

God love you and give you His generosity.
