GIVING FROM OUR BOUNTY:

This bountiful project is supported by our Junior High Youth, through Dec 08. Cost of living increases have made an especially difficult time for many.

The organizations that support families in need struggle. Choose gift and/or food item tags in the Gathering Area. Gifts will support Lifeline, Friend, Inc., and Willow Brook.

- ☆Lifeline requests mother and baby items
- ☆Friend, Inc. seeks food donations for Christmas and children's Christmas clothing and toys.
- ☆Willow Brook residents in long-term care can feel isolated. A little cheer goes a long way to boost morale and aid recovery. You may even include a letter or care for a more personal connection.

Please return gift items by Sunday, Dec 08, with tags securely attached, into the Gathering Area large boxes. No tag needed for Food Items. Gifts preferred unwrapped. However gift bags and wrapping paper donations welcomed.

Poverty Relief Fund

As we look ahead to Thanksgiving, the annual Local Poverty Relief Fund Collection allows us to help the less fortunate in our Diocese. Support parish ministries, local nonprofits, and Catholic school projects helping people in need locally. Info: allentowndiocese.org/poverty-relief

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION- FR. JOHN MARIA

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. As Catholics, we sometimes take for granted the many of our prayers and traditions are centuries, even thousands of years old. This feast is relatively new. It originated in 1925 by Pope Pius XI, in response to a wave of secularism sweeping across many nations, eroding their faith in Jesus Christ, the King of Kings. If Pope Pius were to see our day, I'm sure his mitre would explode!

In our Scripture readings, we see that the Kingship of Jesus was foretold by the Jewish prophets long before His birth in Bethlehem. He would come not merely as King of an oppressed people, but for people of all nations, and languages – including the lands of our distant ancestors, still awaiting the light of the Gospel. He would reign not merely during His time on Earth but forever. He is the Alpha and the Omega.

And yet, His crown was unlike other kings – He wore a crown of thorns for love of us.

This week, take time to reflect upon your fidelity to Christ the King. Worldly leaders come and go. Christ alone is eternal!

May we be renewed in faith and allegiance to this King who poured out His life for us, and may all come to know the love and mercy of Christ, the King of the Universe!

We are a welcoming community called to deepen and share our faith

EUCCHARIST MEANS THANKSGIVING: What better way to truly celebrate Thanksgiving Day than receiving Holy Eucharist and giving thanks. Mass begins at 9a, Nov. 28

MASS INTENTIONS: As Catholics we believe souls united in Christ remain connected-even after death, seek the prayers of the saints, and pray for the souls of loved ones who have died in Christ. It's a most powerful prayer and act of love to request Mass be offered for the souls of loved ones.

Daily Marriage Tip

Sometimes spouses have different conversation goals. One person might want to just talk or vent, while the other might want to fix the problem. Both approaches are fine, but it's important to be clear about each spouse's needs in the moment.

MAN FELL BY means of the food of the death-giving tree; man is raised up by means of the life-giving tree. On the former hung the food of death, on the latter the nourishment of life. Eating of the former earned a wound; the taste of this latter restored health. Eating wounded us, eating healed us. –Pope Urban IV

Only for thyself, I love thee, my God!

REFLECTION... by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As I reflected on this weekend's Scripture ensemble, I suddenly went back to my teaching days, when an assignment would be handed to my students to "Compare and Contrast" two given items. We can do that easily enough with a perceptive look at the three Readings. The first two are replete with grand promises and great glory to be given rightfully to Christ, compared with the Gospel, which comes crashing down to earth, so to speak, with a jolt.

I'd like to consider mainly the gospel. Note within it the appeal of high drama plus the comfort of knowing our faith is well-founded. First, the drama. Here we return briefly to Good Friday, where we get to compare and contrast Pilate and Jesus.

The procurator is in a kind of pressure cooker. Here he stands well within the "comfort zone" of his headquarters, surrounded by protective guards, ready to punish severely anyone who would challenge his leadership. Recall that his wife has urged him several times to steer clear of any involvement with the man from Nazareth. Now that very man is standing in front him. Behind him,

Pilate can hear the roar of the crowd outside, drummed up by the enemies of this prisoner. What should he do? The Jewish priests despise the man. They control the mob. In Pilate's mind, he knows Caesar is watching the whole episode.

So, Pilate decides to ask Jesus the key question of his petty concern: "Are you a king?" The whole idea seems ludicrous, considering the beaten condition of the man Jesus before him, His head bleeding from a thorn helmet the brutal Roman soldiers had made to be a crown. He's obviously feeling weary from a long night of mistreatment by His captors. Yet somehow, He exudes royalty. Compared with this stern Roman standing there in a finely woven toga, a signet ring on his finger, fresh from a good breakfast and surrounded by rough and ready protection.

"You say I am a king," answers Jesus, "For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." How I wish we could all hear the tone of that Voice! We could then easily compare and contrast His power with Pilate's pettiness. But more importantly, we could hear the strength and conviction in Christ's voice. We would certainly be encouraged.

Why the need for courage? Because there is another crowd just outside the Catholic Church this very day full of hate for God, and anger at us for believing in Him. Anger at us because we are a blockage to spreading their lies about nearly everything. It's a veritable "catalog of confusion" they offer with a topsy-turvy value system bound to fail.

We derive our confidence from the Good News of the Gospel, that's why, when we compare and contrast the two viewpoints, we must be so grateful for the leadership and love of our true King, Jesus Christ. He is at the top of our Thanksgiving Day list of blessings. "To Him be glory and power forever!"

Happy Thanksgiving!
